Bible Verse for the week

9 Two are better than one,
because they have a good
return for their labor:
10 If either of them falls down,
one can help the other up.
But pity anyone who falls
and has no one to help them up.

Break! No School!

It takes TEAMWORK!

Our little school depends on the support of our parents and community volunteers to thrive. A huge THANK YOU to all who helped with cookie sorting, checking, and loading! Your time and effort truly let your light shine. We appreciate each of you!

Funds raised from this project helped cover our heating and cooling expenses, along with other important PTO needs.

Please remember—your volunteer hours matter! Some families haven't started their hours yet, so now is a great time to plan ahead. Remember, anyone can help earn those hours for your family, and there are plenty of opportunities to get involved. Contact your child's teacher or the school office for ideas on how you can help!

WHAT IS BETTER THAN BOUNCE HOUSES AND ICE CREAM?

Students earned a MEGA party for selling over the PTO fundraising goal! So much fun was had!!

Thank you

Notes from Mrs. Mary

I would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to everyone who provided food for our hardworking teachers during conference days. Many of our teachers worked non-stop meeting with parents throughout the day, and more than once we heard, "I'm so hungry!" Thanks to the generosity of our parents, they were able to take a much-needed break to enjoy a delicious meal. Your kindness and support are truly appreciated!

Who Are the Saints?

In the Catholic tradition, a saint is any person who has lived a life of holiness on earth and now enjoys eternal life with God in heaven. The Church teaches that all Christians are called to be saints. Those in heaven—whether officially canonized or not—are saints because they lived heroically virtuous lives, offered themselves in love for others, or remained faithful even to the point of martyrdom. They are models of holiness who show us what it means to follow Christ fully.

The saints are living reminders that holiness is possible in every time, place, and circumstance. They encourage us by showing how ordinary people—students, parents, priests, religious, and laypeople—can live extraordinary faith.

Canonization

The Catholic Church has a careful process for officially declaring someone a saint for the entire Church to venerate. This process includes in three main steps:

Venerable: A deceased person is formally recognized by the pope as having lived a life of heroic virtue or offered their life in sacrifice.

Blessed: Beatification requires proof of one miracle through the candidate's intercession (martyrs are exempt from this first miracle requirement). At this stage, the person may be honored locally or regionally.

Saint: Canonization follows after a second confirmed miracle (except in certain cases when the Pope may waive requirements). The person is then recognized as a saint for the universal Church. This process ensures that the lives of canonized saints are held up as trustworthy examples of holiness for Catholics everywhere.

Children's Mass was done by our 5th/6th graders this week!

Our own Father was teaching us cheers on Thursday!
2, 4, 6, 8, who do we appreciate!

God!
