

9/25/2026

This week, our students focused on the virtue of courage—choosing to do what is right even when it feels difficult or scary. We learned that courage doesn't always mean doing something big; sometimes it means speaking kindly, telling the truth, trying something new, standing up for someone, or asking for help. With God beside us, we can be brave and Be His Heart in the World!

Virtue for the Upcoming Week: Patience

Saint of the Week: St. Padre Pio

Padre Pio was an Italian Priest in the 1900's known for his deep prayer life and the wounds of Christ, called the Stigmata, that he carried on his body. Many people came to him for confession, and he listened with compassion and patience to every soul. He endured suffering and misunderstandings without losing faith.

His life shows that patience means waiting with trust and enduring hardships without giving up. Like Padre Pio, you can face difficulties calmly, show gentleness when others test you, and trust God's timing in all things.

Catholic Corner - God Is Patient With Us

One of the most beautiful things about our faith is the patience of God. He knows our weaknesses, our mistakes, our hesitations, and even the times when we say "no" to Him. Yet He never gives up on us. We hear about a son who initially refuses his father's request but later changes his mind and goes to work. His story reminds us that God gives us time to change, to grow, and to turn our hearts back toward Him. Our first response does not have to be our final response.

Perhaps we need that reminder in our own lives. We can become impatient with ourselves when we don't grow as quickly as we would like, or impatient with others when they don't change when we think they should. But God is patient with us. He meets us where we are and gently calls us forward, one step at a time. As we begin this new week, may we trust in God's timing and remember that He is not finished with us yet. And may His patience with us inspire us to be a little more patience with ourselves, our families and one another.
